

H&M and Tractor Supply

Together Again

Tractor Supply Company Macon, Georgia

H&M Company, Inc. and Tractor Supply Company have teamed together once again. H&M Company was awarded their new 670,000 square foot distribution center in Macon, Georgia.

This is a design-build project with design completed by our in-house architectural/engineering firm H&M Architects/Engineers, Inc. H&M is also self-performing the concrete, structural steel and steel erection. The project is scheduled to be completed in July 2013.

This is the second design-build project for the H&M and Tractor Supply Team. H&M was their design-build contractor of choice for their 700,000 square foot Franklin, Kentucky distribution center as well.

H&M Company is a national design-build firm headquartered in Jackson, Tennessee with offices in Nashville, Phoenix and Richmond. To learn more about H&M please visit our website or contact Roger Cook, Greg Kelly or Michael Eidson.
